Handout
Story Song Template
LESSONS 2 AND/OR 8

Name: ___________________________ Date: ___________________________

Story songs devote a verse each to the beginning, middle, and end of a story. The main theme is communicated in the chorus.

Song title: ___________________________
(Remember, this will probably appear somewhere in your chorus as your hook.)

First verse (introduces the story):
____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________

Chorus (theme of the story; includes your hook):
____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________

Second verse (develops the story):
____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________

Bridge (optional; includes an unexpected twist or new information):
____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________

Repeat chorus

Third verse (concludes the story):
____________________________________
____________________________________
____________________________________

Repeat chorus